

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second-Class Matter.

E. D. AKE, Editor.

VOLUME XLIV. NUMBER 46.

IRONTON, MISSOURI.
THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1911.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

County court next week.
Dry again and rather cold the past week.

The down-town restaurant has changed hands again.

Extra good qualities Beef at the Valley Meat Market.

The beer dealers seem to be doing considerable business.

A new awning is being built in front of the Gay & Kindell building.

Prospects are good for a busy season at Graniteville this summer.

All kind of plants for sale at R. Hotson's. Cabbage plants ready to set out.

On one of the inside pages will be found the census of the Missouri towns.

County court will consider the petition for a saloon in Graniteville next week.

There is an epidemic of measles at Graniteville. Fifty cases were reported last week.

The late legislature passed a law requiring the railroad companies to pay employees twice a month.

Look at our Men's Special $7.50 Suit. It is a wonder.

B. N. BROWN.
It is said that ten memberships in the Arcadia Country Club have been sold to residents of the valley.

The Gleaners of the Presbyterian church will give a strawberry and ice cream social in the near future.

Is there a more joyous creature than the boy, book-laden, on his way home from the last day of school?

Stockmen will note the advertisement of the Iron Mountain Stock Farm on the first page of this paper.

In making a survey of the city Surveyor Polak has found many discrepancies in the lots in the north end.

There are said to be quite a number of applicants for principal of the Ironton schools the ensuing year.

Mr. Kanouse is repairing the Baldwin house in South Ironton and expects to fit it up for summer boarders.

Lost—Gold Eyeglasses, rimless, in a black case. Finder please return to Drug Store, at Ironton, and receive reward.

J. Grandhomme will have one of the noblest places in the country when he gets the Kandy Kitchen fully under way.

Swift's Superphosphate, the champion corn-grower. Fresh car just received.

LOPEZ STORE CO.

Good pasture at reasonable rates. Man in charge of pasture has no other duties. Iron Mountain Stock Farm, Iron Mountain, Mo.

Prof. M. W. Daugherty went to Franklinton in St. Francois county last Saturday. He may apply for the principalship of the school there.

Our venerable friend, Dr. H. M. Jones, has been sick with the grip the past week. We are glad to note an improvement in his condition.

Some of the St. Louis people, we understand, are offering substantial aid toward the erection of a tabernacle on "Epworth Among the Hills."

Dr. W. G. Patton was recently appointed local surgeon for the Frisco railroad at Thayer, Mo. We congratulate the young man on his preferment.

The Arcadia Valley Business Men's League will meet at the Academy of Music Thursday evening, this week. A full attendance is desired.

The board of appeals was in session at the courthouse Monday and Tuesday. There were not a great many complaints at the increased assessments.

Ernest Thompson Seton, naturalist for the Arcadia Country Club, will visit the valley next Sunday in company with a number of St. Louis newspaper men.

The official notice of the Special Election to be held August 1st for the purpose of voting on the new capital building is printed on the last page of this paper.

Mrs. L. R. Garr and Mrs. W. J. Schwab returned from Hot Springs, Ark., last Saturday evening. Mr. Schwab expects to be transferred to this end of the line.

The late census gives Ironton a population of 731, as against 797 in 1900. We're willing to gamble that there are more people in Ironton now than there were in 1900.

Business on the railroad continues exceedingly quiet. Were it not for the early fruit and vegetable shipments from the south there would scarcely be anything doing.

Ad Reese of Annapolis came up Thursday to spend a few days with his father, F. P. Reese, and family. He and his father left here the last of the week for Annapolis, where the elder Mr. Reese visited for a few days.—Desloge Sun.

Prof. Daugherty will hold a summer school either here or at Graniteville during the next two months. He asks all those who are interested therein to drop him a line, either at Ironton or Graniteville.

The Bank of Farmington is furnishing the money to cash jury and witness scrip at the present term of circuit court. That institution has signified its willingness to invest as much as $8,000 in Iron county paper.

Notice—Parisian Millinery Company's Ladies', Misses and Children's Trimmed Hats, now on sale at Wm. Trauericht's old stand, Middlebrook, Mo. Call and see them. MRS. PEARL GASSMAN, Agent Parisian Millinery Co.

The following attorneys from out of town are in attendance on circuit court this week: E. A. Rozier, Farmington; O. L. Munger, J. F. Lindsay, Piedmont; J. H. Raney, Greenville; L. F. Dinning, Poplar Bluff; N. A. Mozley, Bloomfield.

Arthur Nall writes from Jefferson City that a party composed of State Treasurer Cowgill, Secretary of State Roach, State Auditor Gordon, Attorney General Majors and himself will be here the latter part of next month to take a fishing trip on St. Francis river.

Congressman Walter L. Hensley returned home on last Saturday to welcome the stork which visited their home this morning and left a fine boy. During his absence from Washington he is paired with Congressman Nicholas Longworth.—Farmington News.

Geo. W. Morris went to St. Louis this morning to accompany home his daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been critically ill at a hospital in that city. We are glad to report that she appears to be rapidly and completely recovering from her recent illness.—Farmington News.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Prince and Miss Estelle Carr accompanied the former's sister, Miss Lottie Prince, who has been visiting here the past ten days, home to Ironton, the latter part of last week, and remained there for a short visit. Miss Carr returned home Friday.—Elvins correspondence to Farmington News.

The Democrats last week at Murphysboro, Ill., elected the Mayor, Attorney, Treasurer, and four out of five Aldermen. I see that my friend, Albert Keuhle, got there as Treasurer in fine shape. But that's not singular: a man whose discretion leads him to choose a wife from Ironton is apt to succeed all along the line.

The smallpox cases in Elvins so far have been confined to the old Evans building opposite the Illinois Southern depot. There are at present seven families quarantined in that building. None of the cases are of a serious nature. It is costing the city about $5.50 per day for groceries in addition to guard service.—Elvins Labor Herald.

In the circuit court of Dent county, at Salem, Monday Geo. R. Martin, a hub manufacturer of Piedmont secured a judgment of $3500 against the Bunker-Culler Lumber Company. The defendant, it seems entered into a contract with Mr. Martin to supply him with a certain amount of hub timber at his factory at Bunker, Mo. The timber was not forthcoming and Mr. Martin entered suit for damages. Munger & Lindsay represented the plaintiff.

The school board for the Ironton district will probably hold a meeting early in May to select teachers for the ensuing year. There are probably ten applicants for the principalship from men of all sorts and conditions. One fellow says he has had two years' experience and wants $100 a month. Another applicant who has had twenty years' experience, does not demand so much and says he would like the place at $75 per month. You pay your money and take your choice.

The Rev. Dr. Swift asks a change of venue in the suit against him for libel. Now, one would naturally suppose that, being so thoroughly sure of the guilt of the officials he has been holding up to public scorn and contumely, he would be willing to join issue with them right here among the people. If Treasurer Jones is proven a thief, surely the community he has defrauded may be depended upon to deal full justice unto both him and his accusers.

A coal car, loaded with iron ore, got out of the switch at Pilot Knob and on to the main track last Friday and came buzzing down the road. It went past the Ironton station like it had been shot out of a gun, over the grade east of town, and then made a fast run to Arcadia. It almost reached the station, then stopped and came down the hill toward Ironton again and stopped on the bridge. It is very fortunate that there was no train on the road at the time. One of the pushers pulled the car to Arcadia and out of harm's way.

Last week there came a box addressed to the editor—came by express, carriage prepaid, from the far-off Golden State. No letter of advice, no post-card, nor ought to indicate the consignor. Nor was it necessary. I knew the box, filled with such oranges as the market here seldom sees, was from the hands of an old friend who, from year to year, thus holds me in gracious remembrance. Is it necessary to voice my appreciation of the gift? Not to him, and the world at large has nothing to do with it. O, the donor? Why, Frank Scoville, of course, the sunshine of whose presence at one time made Ironton doubly dear to his friends.

Excursion Fares From Ironton, Mo. to Little Rock, Ark., account Annual Reunion United Confederate Veterans, May 15th-18th, 1911. $5.45 for round trip. C. E. DOWNEY, Agent.

Mr. C. H. Hopkins, of South Omaha, Nebraska, who was in the valley several weeks ago to look after the ice plant in Arcadia, writes the REGISTER under date of April 24th that he has completed a deal for the possession of the property, and Mr. White, an expert in steam and electric engineering and steam refrigerating, will be here May 15th to take charge and open up the plant, and will be ready to deliver ice by May 10th. Mr. Hopkins will be here himself June 1st and expects to make his home with us. The business will be conducted under the name of "The Iron County Ice & Supply Co." We wish the promoters every success and this is the sentiment of all our people.

This morning the Sabula mail left this place at the usual time, but did not reach Westerville on account of the Middle Fork. He turned around and started back to this place. West Fork was not up any when he started back and he had reached the last crossing of the river just east of town and drove into the water when he was met by a sudden rush of water which amounted to almost a foot and a half rise before he got his team across. The water ran over the hack and washed both mail sacks out and a grip belonging to Mr. W. J. Lee who was a passenger with Mr. Barnes. As soon as they got out of the water they went after the mail and grip which were recovered about a quarter of a mile down the river.—Centerville Outlook.

The Ladies' Social Club met Tuesday, April 11th, 1911, with Mrs. St. Louis of Pilot Knob as hostess. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Gay; the Secretary, Mrs. Mullin, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Roll-call was responded to with quotations. Mrs. Hills read an interesting short story, a guessing game followed, a guest of the Club winning first prize. The hostess favored the Club with some music and delicious refreshments were served. The dining room was tastefully decorated in wild flowers and Club colors—purple and white. Although the weather was inclement, the ladies, as they drove home, declared they had a jolly good time. The next meeting of the Club will be held with Mrs. J. H. York, April 25th, 1911.

The marked difference between the Republican and Democratic way of doing things was forcibly illustrated in the opening of our circuit court this week. For the past six years it has been the custom of the Republican circuit judge to come dragging into the court room anywhere from 1:30 to 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, and very little was accomplished the first day, notwithstanding the jurors and witnesses were in attendance from nine o'clock in the morning. Last Monday morning our Democratic judge was in the court room promptly at nine o'clock, by ten o'clock had cleared the grand jury and the clearing of the docket began. We say this to illustrate the difference between the Democratic and Republican way. The one poses as the master and the other acts as the servant of the people. The defeat of the Republican candidate for circuit judge last fall means the saving of thousands and thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of this circuit.

The Commencement Exercises of the Tenth Grade Class of the Ironton High School last Friday evening, at the Academy of Music, drew a large audience, and the program and its excellent rendering were worthy the occasion. The class members were Misses Mildred Huff, Lucille Ringo, Laura Coddling, Melbie Hill, Estella Alexander and Myrtle Blanton. Following is the program:

ORCHESTRA.....Orchestra
INVOCATION.....Rev. J. C. Ingham
CLASS INTRODUCTORY.....Melbie Hill

PRESIDENT OF DILTONAS
ADDRESS.....J. C. Coker
I have not for a long time so greatly enjoyed an evening as I did the one in question. The readings and recitations were far above the ordinary in matter and delivery; the young orchestra did itself proud. The vocal solos—"Bobolink," by Miss Coddling, and "When the Heart is Young," by Miss Mildred Huff, were deservedly encored. Both young ladies were in excellent voice, singing true to time and tone. I am proud of them, and trust that the future may give them opportunity to fully develop the genius with which they are endowed. Miss Mamie Roehry was pianist, and her artistic accompaniment fitly graced the themes of the singers. The proceedings closed with a talk to the graduates by Dr. G. W. Farrar, the presentation of the diplomas, and a thoughtful address by Rev. A. S. Coker, kindly in feeling and optimistic in spirit, as becomes one whose faith leadeth him to hope all things.

Judge Dearing convened circuit court Monday morning. Walter H. Fisher was named as foreman of the grand jury, and after being charged, began their labors. The first case tried was that of James Oliver, charged with fraudulent voting. The trial consumed the remainder of the day, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty, fixing the punishment at $50 and costs. The defendant, it is said, will not appeal, but will go to jail. The case against Wm. Short, charged with causing an illegal vote to be cast, will probably be tried this week. The attorney for the defense, Mr. Raney, has said that he will disqualify the sheriff from selecting the jury when this case is tried. This is the same course as was pursued by Mr. Raney in these cases a year ago. (Since the foregoing was put in type the case against Short was continued until next October because of the absence of one of the witnesses for the defense.) Tuesday morning a jury tried Harve Medley, of Des Arc, on the charge of assault with intent to kill. The verdict was not guilty. Ida Stephens pleaded guilty to bigamy and was sentenced to six months in jail. Tuesday afternoon began the selection of a jury to try George Hill for the killing of Wm. Dahlke at Brule in this county last December. The sheriff was ordered to have fifty additional jurors in court this morning. It will probably be Thursday noon before the challenges are made and the jury announced. The trial will likely require two days. Messrs. Munger and Steel are assisting Mr. Dameron in the prosecution. Edgar & Edgar, J. H. Raney and B. Irwin, of De Soto, are representing the defense. It looks now like court will be in session most of next week.

From Saturday's St. Louis Republic: "The trial of Henry S. and Gilbert V. Whitener, James A. and George M. London and George B. Dale, on charges of attempting to defraud the Government of lands in Arkansas, was terminated suddenly yesterday by a direct verdict for the defendants. The trial began Thursday and evidence was offered by the Government till noon yesterday. At that time Judge Trieber asked counsel for the Government if they had any more conclusive evidence to present than had been offered up to that time. Homer Hall, Assistant United States District Attorney, replied they had not. Judge Trieber said he did not believe it advisable to continue as the evidence was not sufficient to convict. When court reconvened after the recess Judge Trieber instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendants. The court then discharged the accused. The defendants were indicted in 1908. Later the charges were dismissed on recommendation of former United States District Attorney H. W. Blodgett, for want of evidence. Several months ago the cases were reinstated at the request of the Attorney General of the United States. This order was said to have been made in compliance with the attitude of the Department of Justice for the wholesale prosecution of alleged violators of Government land laws. No evidence for the defense was offered. Later in the day G. M. London, Henry S. Whitener and Gilbert V. Whitener filed a damage suit in the Circuit Court against Alvin Rucker, charging he slandered them in publishing and circulating a pamphlet telling of methods they followed in conducting a bank and in other ventures. Rucker was a witness for the Government and testified he went to Arkansas while the land deal was pending to get information for the pamphlet. Mr. Rucker is now a clerk in Superior Court of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma."

Don't fail to call and inspect the fine stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Hats at Lopez Store Co. The hats are beautiful in the extreme and the price is right.

Obituary.

Died—At his home in Bellevue, Mo., on Monday, April 17, 1911, at 9 o'clock P. M., Wm. H. Buford, aged 73 years and 10 days.

So passes another of the men whose lives have been landmarks in the history of Iron county—men who bulled and honored the community in which their earthly lot was cast. The Buford family was coeval with the settling of Bellevue Valley, in the year 1818. It is traced back five generations to Thos. Buford, who was killed in a fight with Indians at the battle of Point Pleasant, at the mouth of Kanawha river, October 10, 1774. His son was a William Buford, father to Pate Buford, who was the father of the subject of this sketch.

To Pate Buford and his first wife were born eight children, of whom now only two—James and Simeon E.—survive; of the second marriage four are living—Pascal, Thomas, Geo. W. and Charles.

The subject of this brief memoir passed all his days in the beautiful valley his father and grandfather had changed from wilderness to field and farm. He was married December 20, 1860 to Miss Iowa Gulliver, and the fruits of this union were five children, of whom all but one—Mrs. J. C. Horn—preceded the father to that mysterious realm from whose bourne no traveler returns. She alone remains to comfort the widowed mother.

Wm. H. Buford was a man of unblemished character and of more than ordinary natural endowment. Though not a seeker for public position he was thrice chosen Presiding Judge of the Co. Court, and his administration of the office was marked by care, sagacity and faithfulness. He carries with him to his grave the esteem and affection of all who knew him.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, 19th, and hundreds attended the final ceremonies which set the seal of "earth to earth and dust to dust" upon his remains, laid away in the Eldson cemetery. May they rest in peace!

Des Arc Items.

I attended a meeting of the directors of the Wayne County Fair last Friday night. These directors are composed of the best men in Wayne county and they are doing their best to make it the best County Fair in Southeast Missouri. The grounds selected will be in the Branch grove, south of Piedmont, and close to town. It is a fine location, a fine stream of water on the east side and a fine driveway and lots of good shade. Every farmer in Reynolds, Iron and Wayne counties should do their best to help this enterprise along for it will be of as much interest to them as to Wayne county. In fact, it should be called the Wayne, Iron and Reynolds County Fair.

I also met in Piedmont my old friend, Eli Klotz, one of the best business men Piedmont ever had. He came to Piedmont in 1872, when it was in its infancy. He worked for Dr. Norman, who had a drug store there. After that he went into the butcher business and bought his first beehives on a credit. He prospered, fortune smiled on him and there was a bright future before him. Soon after that he went into the Medley Merchandise Company as salesman and soon became a partner in the concern, and at the death of the senior Medley he bought the entire store building, etc. He did a tremendous business at one time. Eli, as we called him, was at the back of every enterprise and also very charitable. A poor man or woman never called on him for help but what they got it and consequently he is loved by every man, woman and child in Wayne county. He calls Piedmont his home.

Geo. Smith, formerly of Ironton and the lead belt, has been employed as bookkeeper for Graves & Stamp.

Mr. Hicks has improved the Logan property west of Des Arc, by building a house and three miles of wire fence around it.

I picked up an old army letter last Sunday, and read a letter written by me to my father. It was dated September 10, 1862, and read as follows: "The enemy is advancing with a large force of infantry and cavalry and we men have out our sharp shooters to meet them. We are expecting a big battle." I did not ask the Lord to protect me in this battle but he did and I did not even thank him for it. If it was now I would certainly get down on my knees and pray to him to protect me. But I was wild in those days, notwithstanding we had to face death every day. ISAAC.

Annapolis News.

Nice and clear, but a little cool to-day.

A. L. Daniels has been in Annapolis the past week looking up witnesses for circuit court.

Times quiet; the boom letting up. Larger ties, less soft wood, and price cut one and two cents on white and black oak ties.

T. P. Fitz is in town to-day looking after hub timber. But little coming in.

F. C. Warncke is making a trip to Bismarck to-day to see Dr. J. Eakon.

as friends. Jeff Davis lives there and we can take a look at him for the next President of the United States.

John McFall is loading out all of his ties this week.

Farmers are making good headway with their spring work.

Gus Funk is running his saw mill to-day.

Wm. Sutton is running his saw mill full blast at the old Stamey place, six miles east of Annapolis. He will load his lumber at the Benson switch.

We have a gang of horse traders camped in the lower end of town. They have been here four days, but done little trading so far.

Sam Moss and wife of Redford are visiting their son in Annapolis. Mr. Moss was telling me of the recent storm in Reynolds county, just above where he lives. The wind carried away a range stove that never has been found. Not a hand full of it was left and part of the things have been found eight miles away. An iron bedstead was blown a short distance, and so badly twisted and warped as to render it useless. The church house on Crane Pond was blown up high eight or ten feet and ruined.

J. C. Russell and Hattie Russell were here to-day.

Several people in town this morning en route to Ironton to attend circuit court.
